Kevin Welsh

the future development subdivision for Bayport Meadows, a 148 town-house/condo residential community for 55 and over.

Marie Zere, president and CEO of Zere Real Estate said, "The property was rezoned from industrial land to residential. It was an easy decision for the Islip town planners since the parcel across the street was already residential with minimal impact on the quality of life in the community. There was no opposition to this kind of beautiful development."
